Treasurer's Report

- Don't have any updated numbers yet from Read-A-Thon. A few teachers have used a couple hundred dollars in the teacher supply. No real change expected.
- Ms. Chapman is requesting some garden supplies. Anita will ask her to put together a funding request.

Read-a-Thon Recap

- Raised a total of 10,995 (goal was $6,000!) total 44,326minutes, 121 students registered (that's a lot of pages/student!), Read-a-thon prizes are based on minutes read! Class wise, there was a most money raised Ms. Martinez, Ms. Zoe 7,895min (17/20kids registered) and Ms. Meyer 5614min. All these classes got a donut party! Grand prizes for two students (a BeeHive and Collected Works). Great reading all around!!! 28 out of 50 states and many international donations! Closing all the transactions and Mel B will get all the numbers to Mel G. 15 students who read over 1,000min.
- Felt good to do this after Fall Festival

Parent's Night Out

- February 24th
- Contacted the Gov's Mansion but they don't have weekend availability. No money exchange there allowed (auction).
- Looking at a few hotels, the CCA, Rio Chama, Sunset Grill, Lodge, Eagles, others. Will try to get the venue nailed down in the next two weeks.
- Have already started getting donations for the auction.

Snowflake Drive

- 100 snowflakes put up: first round of 50 already got picked up and there are only 12 left from the second 50.

Traffic Updates

- No one has signed up to monitor the traffic.
- Crossing guard is not always here (he seems to be getting sent to other schools).

Open Discussion

- Next year is WG's 100 year anniversary! What could we do?! Any ideas?! Yearbooks from the past? Graduate speakers? School birthday party (in the classes/community? More ideas?!

Principal's Update

- Snowflakes have been getting picked up! Hope to have gifts back before Monday! Exciting!
- Winter Teacher Week: each day, teachers get a different treat, day 1 warm drinks, 2 Kraft, 3 something from the district, Thursday forgot...Friday gift of a nice insulated coffee mug.
- Student Council said they are going to send forms out to parents to have them help run clubs. Look for these and if you are interested, sign up! They have a day where they will sell popcorn and another where they will serve hot chocolate.
- Two basketball teams!!!
- We still need a cheer coach. Uniforms are on hand (in the basement). Practices are supposed to start now and season is Jan and Feb (boys bb game, 2 games/week).
- Over the break, the new desks will be brought in so, students will return to new desks!
- Approved for a large sail for an "outdoor classroom" (to the south of the school) and outdoor furniture (4 tables)
- Our school's test scores for May are really great (literacy, math, attendance). Hard to get a comprehensive report but WG is very close to the top if not at the top. Reading proficiency is at 81% which is head and shoulders above most schools and far above the state average. Shifted some attention to math. Doing good in this category also but more room for improvement than on literacy. Attendance is pretty good. Look at Principal Lindeen's newsletter for access to the reports.

Meeting adjourned at 7:35pm
